

Toy Library Regulations

Conditions of use

- 1 Users can use the toys and facilities in the Toy Library for free.

The Toy Library aims at serving children aged eight or below and their parents. Each child should be accompanied by one adult, and each adult may accompany two children at most when using the Toy Library.
- 2 For the sake of hygiene, all users (including adults and children) should place their shoes on the rack, and wear socks before entering the Toy Library. Otherwise, users will not be allowed to enter the Toy Library.
- 3 The Baby Play Area in the Toy Library is designed for infants aged three or below, and they should be accompanied by adults when playing in the area.
- 4 Users need to use hand sanitiser and will be subject to body temperature checks before admission.
- 5

Reservation

- 1 During the opening hours of the Toy Library, reservations can be made by telephone at 2921 0386 or in person no more than four days prior to the intended date of use (that day inclusive), and each child can only use one session per day.
- 2 For the sake of safety and social distancing, the Toy Library can only accommodate a maximum of 40 persons per session.

Applicants who have reserved a session should register at the Toy Library ten minutes before the commencement of the reserved session. If they fail to register within five minutes after the commencement of the reserved session, their places will be allocated to other applicants on the waiting list. Applicants who have booked the first session of the day may register within ten minutes after the commencement of the session.
- 3 Applicants may register on the waiting list in person on the day of use, and each child can only sign up for one session at a time. Priority will be given to those who have not used the Toy Library service on the same day.
- 4 When the session is not full, eligible users may sign up on the spot for using the service on a first come, first served basis.
- 5
- 6 Reservations are not transferable.

Enquiries

For enquiries, please contact the library staff on duty in person or by phone at 2921 0378.

For reservation, please call us at 2921 0386