

Hong Kong Central Library

Highlights of New Additions to Depository & Special Collections of International Organizations

Author, Title and Publishing Information

Call No.

CHINA's Structural Transformation : What Can Developing Countries Learn?
New York ; Geneva : United Nations, c2022.

UN
338.951
CHI

This book studies China's significant success in economic growth and resulted social and political achievements in past decades with detailed examinations on its policies in structural transformation. The policies are categories in four focused areas and learning points which could be applied on other developing countries would also be discussed.

FROM JOBS to Careers : Apparel Exports and Career Paths for Women in Developing Countries.
Washington, DC : World Bank Group,
c2021.

WB
331.4887091
724
JOB

This report explains how apparel industry with its high female-intensiveness and global engagement expands and contributes to women labor force by reviews on current situations of seven developing countries. It further discusses its possible encouragement for more women to develop career paths with aspiration in developing countries.

PRIMER on Large-scale Assessments of Educational Achievement.
Washington, DC : World Bank Group,
c2021.

WB
371.264
PRI

This primer book introduces the design, analysis and result of several large-scaled assessments examining the education achievement in countries all around the world. It is a reliable reference guide for improving the resources allocations, service delivery and thus the learning outcomes through inspections on strength and weakness on particular education systems.

PROMOTING Social Bonds for Impact
Investments in Asia
Metro Manila, Philippines : Asian Development Bank, c2021.

ADB
332.63095
PRO

Social bonds are investment products targeted exclusively on new or existing social projects and its market has grown remarkably under the impact of COVID-19 pandemic. This report analyses the current picture of social bond markets in Asia and suggests how the markets could support the sustainable development in Asian countries.

TEXTILES and Clothing in Asian Graduating LDCs : Challenges and Options.
Geneva : United Nations, c2022.

UN
338.47677
TEX

COVID-19 pandemic has caused great damages on textile and clothing export industry in Asian less developed countries (LDCs) and disturbed the continuous growing trend in their socio-economic progress in past decades. This report addresses the challenges LDCs are facing in graduating from less developed status and possible strategies to adapt the market changes and diversifications.