評語：色彩熱情繽紛，小巴士充滿細節，讓大家跟著走上最美的西非之旅。

Give me a hug is a meaningful story. It is written by Nick Vujicic and it is about his experience.

When he was born, everyone was shocked because he had no arms and no legs, that means he has phocomelia. His parents did not abandon him, they love and care for him.

He was a hard-working student and had good marks in primary school. But he had to go to a new school when he was 12. At the new school, the classes are very hard and he could not keep up, so his grades started falling. One day, he has been bullied by 12 classmates and he said, 'If one more person laughs at me today, I'll just give up on my life!' The school day finally ended and he left the school. 'Hey! Nick!' a girl said. Nick thought she was the 13 person, but the girl said, 'Hey, Nick, you look great today!' she encouraged Nick and Nick cheered up.

Although a lot of people said he has phocomelia, but he has a little 'chicken drumstick'. When he was six, dad taught him to type with the two toes on his 'chicken drumstick'. After trained it, it's now fast. He can swim, play golf and soccer. You know why he can do all these things? It's because he is not afraid of difficulties. And he work hard! If he fail the first time, he always use a different method and try again, until he succeed.

I have learnt perseverance from Nick. He never gives up, worthy of my learning.

書籍：《我變成一隻噴火龍了！》

作者：賴馬 文圖

評語：主題對比鮮明，懂得以自創的人物去表達。

This book mostly talks about some funny animals' conversation. It includes a lot of different species of animals, such as a little pig, an enormous cat, some mice, a hedgehog, and even a little insect too. Some of them live in barns, a hole, or even near a garden! For me, I think the funniest chapter in this story is the pig, 'Keep Yelling Young Un'. It is about a little pig which wants to be a sheep-pig. It ran along with the sheep, into the lorry they go. The rustlers sent a flanking dog to drive the pig away, some of the sheep began to slip past them. The cows started to gallop about. Everything was a big mess.

What I learnt from this book is that we should never judge someone by their appearance. This chapter is called 'The Excitement of Being Ernest'. It is about a Gloucestershire low-dog, called Ernest. Every dog he saw in the village asked about what kind of dog he was. But none of them answered his question. Until, he met a English Setter which answered his question that he was a Gloucestershire low-dog. Setter told Ernest that there was a poster about a dog show. Ernest thought the judge would never look twice at him. Sadly, his owner thought the same too. She cleaned him up and went for the show. Setter was there too and he encouraged Ernest. Ernest felt happier and won at the very end.
